

School is closed.

School will open again when people are feeling better.

You will stay at home while school is closed.

You will have some school work to do at home whilst school is shut.

You are safe and do not need to feel scared.

